UN Mission visits Maldives

A United Nations Mission was fielded by the Department of Political Affairs (DPA) between 31 July and 1 August 2010 to discuss the present situation in the Maldives. The Mission met with the main political parties, NGOs, and government officials. The Mission was composed of Mr. Tamrat Samuel, Chief of the Asia and Pacific Division, and Mr. Hitoki Den, Team Leader for South Asia. Mr. Andrew Cox, the United Nations Resident Coordinator in the Maldives, also participated in the Mission. The UN has committed to provide technical assistance to all parties, will continue to closely monitor developments, and stands ready to provide additional assistance as required.
